N. Wildwood 1967 Mary Baldwin Landy
Gotta love the hat! This is Mary Baldwin Landy catching some rays outside of her family summer home on 17th & Ocean, next to the old Tides and Pink Shell Motels in North Wildwood. The home as well as the motels were later demolished to make way for the Montego Bay Resort Hotel. Back in the 60s, Mary was known as the Queen of Taps. She was a tap dancer on the weekends with Irish American actor and comic Mickey Shaughnessy at Lou Booth's Club 18. She also danced at the Manor Supper Club and the 500 Club in AC. She also worked with Cozy Morley, Fisher & Marks Comedy team and the great Jimmy Durante. This summer Mary celebrates her 80th birthday as she has been recovering from a stroke.
