

Moore's Inlet circa 1960s. PHOTO COURTESY OF RICK'S SEAFOOD.

Marlene, Mike & Larry McMonagle

Watercolor by Marie Natale www.MarieNatale.com

Moore's Inlet

July 1st, 2010 ~ Rest in Peace Mike Guadagno

Mike was a legend. Although, if he were here, he would say "No way! I'm just your average guy." He was very down to earth and whenever you would see him, he would make you feel as though you were his one and only friend. We can't tell how much fun we had at Moore's. My wife, Marlene & I would rush down from Philly every Friday afternoon from May through September to hurry over to Moore's for a fun evening with Tony Mascara on the keyboard, Al Trottnow the bartender, and of course Mike would be there to greet you with a friendly kiss on the cheek. The Aqua Nets would be there to take us back to the 50s. What great memories!

When we heard Moore's was actually closing, we were so devastated. Mike held a farewell party to thank everyone for being a part of Moore's Inlet. We left unable to hold up past 10PM and Mike promised to save me a bar stool. We met up with Mike the following Monday to collect my bar stool. Mike was so apologetic saying he wasn't able to retrieve anything after the crowd literally tore the place apart and carried off everything that was attached or unattached. The place looked like a tornado hit it. But Mike, being the guy that he was, had kept 2 web chairs from the patio deck for us.

He personally put them in our car for us. They now sit on our porch at our summer house in the Crest to forever remind us of what a great human being Mike Guadagno was. We will always remember you Mike.

May you rest in peace our friend, Larry & Marlene McMonagle