SUN by-the-sea Bathing Beauties

"In olden days a glimpse of stocking was looked on as something shocking! Now, Heaven knows! Anything goes." -COLE PORTER, ANYTHING GOES, 1934

Above, Carol Boyce (now McCormick) in Wildwood. Summer of 1960. These photos were taken in the playground on Oak Avenue that was next to the train station. Her family would take the train from 30th Street Station in Philadelphia and vacation in a boarding house nearby the station every summer. Below are her mom and dad on one of those hot summer Wildwood days... Benny & Snooky Boyce with their little boy Bucky in the summer of 1943.

ABOVE PHOTOS SENT IN BY CAROL MCCORMICK, NOW A YEAR ROUND RESIDENT OF NORTH WILDWOOD WHO WAS NEVER ABLE TO GET THE SAND OUT OF HER SHOES!

1943 ~ Wildwood's ever popular bouncer/muscleman/beach bum/walker is Dave Snyder who can still be seen all year long wearing his short shorts!
